

César San Juan Guillén

Graduate in Psychology from the University of the Basque Country (1987). Specialisation in Social Psychology from the Catholic University of Louvain (Belgium) and PhD in Psychology from the University of the Basque Country (UPV-EHU) in 1991. Professor of the Department of Social Psychology (UPV-EHU) teaching the subjects: "Legal Psychology", "Criminal Psychology" and "Environmental Criminology". Since 2006 Director of the International Research Centre on Delinquency, Marginality and Social Relationships. He has been President of the Spanish Society of Criminological Research, member of the scientific committee of the International Society of Criminology, and between 2007 and 2011 director of the Spanish Journal of Criminological Research. He is a visiting professor at the Diego Portales University (Santiago de Chile), the Central American University (Managua, Nicaragua), the Universidad Mayor de San Simón (Bolivia), the London School of Economics (London, United Kingdom), the José Simón Cañas University (San Salvador, El Salvador) and the University of Palermo (Buenos Aires, Argentina). He is currently developing various studies on social problems related to urban security, being co-author in this field of the manual "Environmental Criminology: Ecology of Crime and Security". He is currently the principal investigator of the Consolidated Group of the University System of the Basque Government Applied Criminology (CRIM-AP), classified as category "A".

Research Lines

Juvenile and Minor Delinquency. Environmental Criminology: Perception of insecurity, fear of crime. Crime and urban design. Legal Psychology. Forensic Psychology. Criminal Psychology. Crime prevention. Victimology. Environmental Psychology. Restorative spaces.