

Óscar Jaime Jiménez

He is the academic coordinator of the doctoral program "Analysis of social problems" at the National University of Distance Education (UNED) and a Professor and Researcher of Political Science and Administration in the Department of Sociology at the Public University of Navarra and Doctor of Political Science from the University of Salamanca. He is also Director of the Professional Expert Diploma in Jihadist Terrorism at the General Gutiérrez Mellado Institute. He has also been Director of the Institute of Police Studies of the General Directorate of Police and General Director of the Spanish Police Foundation until 2007. Furthermore, from 2004 to 2009 he held the position of Executive Advisor to the Director General of the Police and the Civil Guard. From 2010 to 2012 he was Technical General Secretary of the Cabinet of Studies on Internal Security of the State Secretariat for Security of the Ministry of the Interior. He was awarded the Medal of Merit by the Civil Guard in 2006. He actively participates as a speaker and professor in various Masters and Postgraduate Courses at different Universities and Research Institutes. He has written various articles and collaborated in numerous collective works.

Research Lines

Security foresight, public security policies, reorganization of security in transition contexts, police models, new security challenges, institutional responses to insecurity, terrorism/counterterrorism and transnational organized crime.